INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL FOR IRISH HARP

Established in 1985, our harp festival
An Chúirt Chruitireachta ranks among the top international harp festivals for Irish harp.

We are passionate about the music of the harping tradition and its place within Irish traditional music. We warmly welcome harpers of every standard from all over the world. We guarantee a life-changing harp experience; our workshops, sessions and concerts provide an opportunity to meet and perform with other harpers, gain a better understanding of Irish music, song and dance as well as gaining further insights into the harp and its music.

HOW IT WORKS

Meet world-class festival mentors who work collaboratively and share their knowledge in a relaxed 'no stress' environment to make sure you get the most from the festival programme which includes elements like:

Irish harping techniques and arranging for harp

Traditional ornamentation

Session and group playing

Wire strung harp styles

Music of the 16th and 17th century harpers

FESTIVAL MENTORS 2018

Cormac de Barra

Máire Ní Chathasaigh

Áine Ní Dhubhghaill

Dearbhail Finnegan

Deirdre Granville

Gráinne Hambley

Kathleen Loughnane

Triona Marshall

Anne-Marie O'Farrell
