35th International Festival for Irish Harp

Established in 1985, our harp festival An Chúirt Chruitreachta ranks among the top international harp festivals for Irish harp.

We are passionate about the music of the harp tradition and its place within Irish traditional music. We warmly welcome harpers of every standard from all over the world. We guarantee a lifechanging harp experience; our workshops, sessions and concerts provide an opportunity to meet and perform with other harpers, gain a better understanding of Irish music, song and dance as well as learning more about the harp and its music.

How It Works

Meet world-class festival mentors who work collaboratively and share their knowledge in a relaxed 'no stress' environment to make sure you get the most from the festival programme which includes elements like:

- 🎻 Irish harping techniques and arranging for harp
- 🎻 Traditional ornamentation
- 🎻 Session and group playing
- 🎻 Wire strung harp styles
- 🎻 Music of the 16th and 17th century harpers

What They Said

“Definitely harp therapy at its best! A week I won't forget – the music will be ringing in my ears for a long time”.

“So much harp music and such beautiful sounds”.

“Truly terrific – better than I expected. I'm quite sad to be leaving. Invaluable and life-altering!”

“It just kept getting better and better. Thank you so much”.

Workshops 2020

Explore the potential of the Irish harp in a wide range of workshops covering all facets of harping and Irish traditional music.

Lunchtime Concerts

Listen to our Rising Stars with emerging young harpers at Drogheda's 18th century Tholsel lunchtime sessions.

Evening Concerts

Join our world class harpers and other traditional musicians for the best of Irish harping at our nightly concerts – memorable harp showcases.

Harp Exhibitions

Hear about the latest developments in harp-making. Meet master harp makers from Ireland and further afield.

Hands On Harps

Try your hand — sit behind a harp and pluck the strings at our Harp Open Day.
